Guided dance page. GoNoodle Guided Dance. (n.d.). Retrieved April 6, 2023, from <https://www.gonoodle.com/tags/0YZ0G2/guided-dance>

- Videos for Elementary students that focus on movement and mindfulness including popular music, dancing, yoga, and deep breathing. This is a great website for brain breaks! I included Go Noodle in my portfolio because I used it a lot during my practicum. It was a great way to get kids moving if they have been sitting for too long and need a brain break in between lessons.

2. Class Dojo: <https://www.classdojo.com/>

ClassDojo. (n.d.). Classdojo. ClassDojo. Retrieved April 6, 2023, from <https://www.classdojo.com/>

- Educational website used to build classroom community with parents, students and the teacher. This website allows the teacher to communicate with parents and students. This website also has Dojo points and you can give points to students who are on-task or working hard. I included Class Dojo in my portfolio because I used it almost every day during my practicum as a classroom management technique. When a student got 10 dojo points, they could go to the prize box at the end of the day and pick out a prize. This motivated students to stay on task.

- Teachers Pay Teachers is a website that has digital activities and printable educational resources for grades PreK-12 and includes all subjects. Teachers can purchase and sell educational resources or find resources that are free. I included this website in my portfolio because I used it a lot during the BEd program. There are resources for everything you are teaching and it's very easy to use. I would recommend this website to all teachers.

8. All Kids Network: <https://www.allkidsnetwork.com/>

Welcome to all kids network! Kids Crafts, Kids Activities, Worksheets, Coloring Pages and More | All Kids Network. (n.d.). Retrieved April 6, 2023, from <https://www.allkidsnetwork.com/>

- All Kids Network is a website that has resources for parents, teachers and anyone who works with children. It has thousands of fun kids activities like kids crafts, worksheets, coloring pages, printable mazes, dot to dot, hidden pictures and more. I included this website in my portfolio because I used it during my practicum and it was very easy to use with lots of different resources to choose from.

9. The Color Monster: A Story About Emotions by Anna Llenas

Llenas, A. (2018). The colour monster. Templar Publishing.

- This storybook is about emotions and it helps children identify their emotions and feel more in control. I included this storybook in my portfolio because I read this story to my students in my practicum class and it was a great way to talk about all the emotions we might feel in a day and how we can better control our emotions. After reading this story, I had the students write a journal entry about the emotion they were feeling that day and they really enjoyed doing this.

10. Kindness is My Superpower by Alicia Ortego

Ortego, A. (2020). Kindness is my superpower: A children's book about empathy, kindness and compassion. Alicia Ortego.

- This storybook is about empathy, kindness, and compassion. It's a great storybook for social emotional learning and it teaches students positive behaviour in different settings such as at home, in the store, at school, and on the playground. This storybook teaches children that they have many superpowers and kindness is only one of them. After reading this story, students can write a journal entry on ways they can be kind.
